

Hunter Brook Horse Farm

Party Rules

In order to ensure everyone has an enjoyable and safe party experience, the following rules apply to all guests:

All guests are to follow the directions of the farm staff.

All guests must stay together in groups.

No smoking in the barn. Smoking is permitted only in designated areas where ash cans are located.

Alcoholic beverages are not permitted on the premises at any time.

Children are to be supervised at all times. No running through the barn or standing on fences. Parents must be aware of their children's whereabouts at all times.

All parties must be paid for in full before the party begins. Cash and checks are accepted at the farm.

Paypal is only accepted online.

A gratuity of 20% will be added to all packages and must be paid with the balance before the party begins.

A final guest list total is required. Changes to the guest list can only be made up until 11:00 a.m. two days before the party.

In case of bad weather, your party will be rescheduled. You will not lose your deposit and a date will be chosen that is acceptable to you and us.
